

Thank you to everyone who attended our last meeting.

Most of the meeting time was used for a presentation by Paul Schiffer, who explained why he believed that he was the best candidate to run on the Republican ticket against Congressman Boccieri. For those of you who were interested to hear Mr. Schiffer's platform but unable to attend the meeting, a seven-part Youtube video of his presentation can be seen at:

A question and answer period followed the presentation.

Tom Adams announced a protest rally being held Saturday, December 5th at the intersection of Main Street and Great Oaks Trail. The remainder of the meeting was spent reviewing the schedule of upcoming events. I've attached this schedule.
