

The February meeting attendance set a new record. We filled Room C and had to bring in extra tables and chairs.

We started with a discussion of GOOOH. Pat Furey, who had been the GOOOH state coordinator, joined us and explained the concept of GOOOH and invited any interested parties to attend a meeting at the Holiday Inn in Independence on Tuesday, February 16th at 7:00 p.m. Tim Cox, the founder of GOOOH, will be at the meeting to answer questions.

- 1) We discussed plans for the Medina Tax Day Tea Party. Amy Brighton recapped the need for helpers and reviewed the fund raising efforts.
- 2) We discussed the status of getting conservatives from our group to join the Medina County Republican Party's Central Committee. We are still looking for qualified candidates who are interested in serving.
- 3) We reviewed the status of the two videos currently being planned. One is a chronology of the tea party movement and the other is a vetting of the 16th Congressional District's GOP candidates.
- 4) Frank and Gail Maimone gave an overview of the Sherriff Mack event at Green High School on March 13th.
- 5) We announced:
 - a) Jim Renacci is expected to speak at our March meeting
 - b) Matt Miller was scheduled to be vetted by the Summit 9.12 Group on Saturday, February 6th (unfortunately this was postponed due to bad weather)
 - c) The Lincoln Day Dinner is on February 20th at the Weymouth Country Club.
 - d) We are looking for a new meeting place – Steiner is scheduled to close at the end on May

The next meeting is scheduled for March 4th at 7:00 p.m. at the Steiner Youth Center in Room C.

Best regards,

Jeff
